PART II – CONTROL OF DOGS

1. Every owner of a dog:
 - a. shall keep the dog under immediate and effective control while not on the owner's property;
 - b. shall keep the dog on a leash while it is not on the owner's property;
 - d. shall keep the dog confined so that it cannot escape while it is on the owner's property;
 - e. shall keep all dogs carried in the rear of an open vehicle on a leash or harness so that the dog is securely kept in the vehicle and unable to reach beyond the sides of the vehicle; and
 - f. keep the dog from straying or trespassing onto private property other than property owned or occupied by the owner.
2. Every owner of a dog must ensure that:
 - a. the dog does not pursue or harass a person; and
 - b. the dog does not kill or injure a person or domestic animal.
3. Every owner of a dangerous dog:
 - a. shall keep the dog muzzled and effectively secured on a leash no more than 2 meters in length while not on the owner's property;

- b. shall keep the dog securely confined either indoors or in an enclosed pen or other structure capable of preventing the entry of young children and adequately constructed to prevent the dog from escaping while the dog is on the owner's property; and
 - c. shall prominently display a sign stating 'Beware of Dog' at the front and rear entrances to the owner's property. Said sign to be at least 12 inches x 12 inches in size, yellow in colour with large, bold black lettering.
4. Every owner of a dog that has bitten a person or domestic animal shall keep the dog muzzled while not on the owner's property.
5. The owner of a dog that is in heat:
 - a. must keep the dog securely confined indoors or within a building or enclosure that will prevent the escape of the dog or the entry of other dogs when the dog is on private property; and
 - b. must keep the dog on a leash when it is in a public place.
6. No owner may allow a dog or dogs to call, cry or bark, continuously or sporadically for 15 minutes or more, in such a way that the noise is audible outside of the parcel where the dog or dogs are kept as the Board believes such noise is objectionable and liable to disturb the peace, rest, enjoyment, comfort or convenience of individuals and the public.
7. The owner of a dog that is declared a nuisance dog must take such actions as may be deemed necessary to ensure the Bylaw is not further contravened.
8. Every owner who keeps an animal which normally resides outside, or which is kept outside unsupervised for extended periods of time, shall ensure the animal is provided with an enclosure that meets the following criteria:
 - a. a total area that is at least three times the length of the animal in all directions;
 - b. contains a house or shelter that will provide protection from heat, cold and wet that is appropriate to the animal's weight and type of coat. Such shelter must provide sufficient space to allow the animal the ability to turn around freely and lie in a normal position;
 - c. should provide sufficient shade to protect the animal from the direct rays of the sun at all times; and
 - d. pens and runs must be regularly cleaned and sanitized and excreta removed and properly disposed of.
9. No person shall keep three (3) or more dogs over the age of six months on any parcel.

PART III – POUND OPERATION

1. The Animal Control Officer, alone or with others, may seize, impound or detain any dog found to be running at large in the area serviced under this Bylaw.
3. If a licensed dog is impounded under this Bylaw, the Animal Control Officer must either speak to the owner of the dog or deliver a notice to the licensed owner at the address provided on the dog's license application, and inform the owner that the dog has been impounded.
4. If an unlicensed dog is impounded under this Bylaw, the Animal Control Officer must, if the owner is known, notify the owner by mail or telephone that the dog has been impounded and advise of the fee required, contained herein, for the release of the dog. If the owner, so notified, does not appear at the pound within four (4) days and release the dog so impounded by payment of the fees and expenses chargeable under this Bylaw, the Animal Control Officer may sell or destroy the dog.
5. If an unlicensed dog is impounded under this Bylaw and the owner is not known by the Animal Control Officer and the owner does not appear at the pound to release the dog so impounded by payment of the fees and expenses chargeable under this Bylaw, after four (4) days the Animal Control Officer may sell or destroy the dog.
6. The Animal Control Officer shall record in a book kept for that purpose, the following information:
 - a) the number and description of each dog or cat impounded
 - b) the description of each other animal impounded
 - c) the name of the person who brought or caused the animal to be impounded
 - d) the day and the hour on which the animal was received, redeemed, sold or destroyed
 - e) the fees paid by the redeeming party
 - f) the amount of the proceeds of the sale, if any

PART IV - IMPOUNDMENT

1. The owner of an animal that has been impounded pursuant to this bylaw may recover the animal from the Pound by providing the Animal Control Officer with proof of ownership, and by paying the fees prescribed in Schedule 'A' of this Bylaw, in accordance with the number of days the animal was impounded and the number of times that the animal has been impounded.

2. The owner of a dangerous dog who wants to reclaim a dangerous dog that has been impounded must pay, in addition to the regular impoundment fees, the surcharge and other charges stated in Schedule 'A' for the handling and care of a dangerous dog, and must read, complete and sign the release attached as Schedule 'B' to this bylaw.
3. The Animal Control Officer may sell, dispose of, or humanely destroy a dog or other animal after the expiration of 96 hours from the date of impoundment, or with the consent of the owner.
4. The proceeds of the sale of any impounded dog sold under the provisions of this Bylaw, less the cost of impounding, sustenance fees and attending the sale, shall be turned over to the Regional District of Central Kootenay at least once each month.
5. The owner of an animal shall pay the maintenance and other applicable fees set out in Schedule 'A' to this Bylaw, even if the owner does not reclaim the animal.
6. The Animal Control Officer may destroy any animal that is suffering from an incurable disease.
7. No person shall rescue, attempt to rescue or release any animal in the Pound or in the custody of the Animal Control Officer pursuant to this bylaw.
8. Where the Animal Control Officer has in any calendar year impounded any dog three (3) times or more, or where the owner of any dog has been convicted of an offense under this Bylaw in respect of that dog three (3) times or more in any calendar year, then the Animal Control Officer may order that the dog be removed from the control area within a reasonable period of time, and upon failure of the owner to comply with the order, the Animal Control Officer may take the dog into custody and destroy it.
9. The Animal Control Officer may, where necessary employ the use of lures, baits, nets, tranquilizer gun, sonic and mechanical devices or any other means of apprehending dogs provided always that such methods are applied humanely.

PART V – RIGHT OF ENTRY

1. The Animal Control Officer is hereby authorized to enter, at all reasonable times, upon any property within the specified areas of Electoral Area I and J in order to ascertain whether the provisions of this Bylaw are being obeyed.

2. No person shall hinder, delay or obstruct the Animal control Officer or any person lawfully engaged in the execution of his or her duties under this Bylaw.

PART VI – SCHEDULES

1. Schedules 'A' and 'B' of this Bylaw form a part of this Bylaw and are enforceable in the same manner as this Bylaw.

PART VII – PENALTIES

1. A person who contravenes this bylaw or other requirement made or imposed under this bylaw, or amendments thereto, is guilty of an offence and is liable to a fine not exceeding $500.
2. Where an offence is committed or continues for more than one day, a person shall be deemed to have committed separate offences for each day on or during which an offence occurs or continues, and separate fines, each not exceeding $500, may be imposed for each day on or during which an offence occurs or continues.
3. Nothing in this bylaw shall restrict the District from utilizing any other remedy that would otherwise be available to the District at law.

PART VIII – EXCEPTION

1. Nothing in this Bylaw shall apply to a Guide Dog.
