

Regional District of Central Kootenay

Bylaw No. 2095

A Bylaw to regulate the keeping of dogs within Electoral Areas E and F

WHEREAS THE Board of the Regional District of Central Kootenay has, under the “Electoral Areas E and F Dog Control Service Establishment Bylaw No. 2079, 2009” established a service area within Electoral Areas E and F for the purpose of providing an animal control service;

WHEREAS pursuant to the Local Government Act, the Board may, by bylaw, provide for the control of animals;

AND WHEREAS it is deemed expedient to regulate the keeping of dogs in Electoral Areas E and F;

NOW THEREFORE, the Board of the Regional District, in open meeting assembled, hereby enacts as follows:

PART I – GENERAL

1. This Bylaw may be cited for all purposes as the ‘Electoral Areas E and F Dog Control Regulatory Bylaw No. 2095, 2009’.
2. The Board may enter into agreement with one or more qualified person(s) to act as the Regional District’s agent and to carry out the duties of Animal Control Officer within the Control Area
3. In this bylaw:

ANIMAL CONTROL OFFICER means any person appointed by the Board as an Animal Control Officer and/or Dog Control Officer and also includes a Bylaw Enforcement Officer and a Peace Officer;

BOARD means the Board of the Regional District of Central Kootenay

DANGEROUS DOG means a dog that:

- a. Killed or injured a person, domestic or farm animal, or has pursued or harassed a person;
- b. any dog with a known propensity, tendency or disposition to attack without provocation other animals or humans;
- c. is specifically bred or trained for fighting purposes;

DOG shall include both the male and the female of the species over six (6) months of age;

FARM ANIMAL means an agricultural animal kept for use or profit;

GUIDE DOG means a dog for which a valid and subsisting certificate has been issued under the 'Guide Animal Act';

INCURABLE DISEASE includes rabies and injuries that will result in death;

NUISANCE DOG means a dog deemed to be a nuisance, upon receipt of two written warnings, stating the dog disturbs the quiet, peace, enjoyment or comfort of the surrounding neighbourhood, through acts of persistent barking or howling;

OWNER means a person:

- a. who owns, is in possession of, or has the care or control of an animal;
- b. who harbours, shelters, permits or allows an animal to remain on or about that person's land or premises, or
- c. who is the custodial parent or legal guardian of a child under the age of 18 years who owns, is in possession of, or has the care or control of an animal;

POUND shall mean any building or enclosure or place established for impounding dogs;

RUN AT LARGE means being elsewhere than on the property of the owner while not in the immediate and effective control of a reasonable and responsible person;

PART II – CONTROL OF DOGS

1. Every owner of a dog:
 - a. shall keep the dog under immediate and effective control while not on the owner's property;
 - b. shall keep the dog on a leash while it is not on the owner's property;
 - c. shall keep the dog confined so that it cannot escape while it is on the owner's property;
 - d. shall keep all dogs carried in the rear of an open vehicle on a leash or harness so that the dog is securely kept in the vehicle and unable to reach beyond the sides of the vehicle; and
 - e. keep the dog from straying or trespassing onto private property other than property owned or occupied by the owner.
2. Every owner of a dog must ensure that:
 - a. the dog does not pursue or harass a person; and
 - b. the dog does not kill or injure a person, domestic or farm animal.
3. Every owner of a dangerous dog:
 - a. shall keep the dog muzzled and effectively secured on a leash no more than 2 meters in length while not on the owner's property;

- b. shall keep the dog securely confined either indoors or in an enclosed pen or other structure capable of preventing the entry of young children and adequately constructed to prevent the dog from escaping while the dog is on the owner's property; and
 - c. shall prominently display a sign stating 'Beware of Dog' at the front and rear entrances to the owner's property. Said sign to be at least 12 inches x 12 inches in size, yellow in colour with large, bold black lettering.
4. Every owner of a dog that has bitten a person or domestic animal shall keep the dog muzzled while not on the owner's property.
5. The owner of a dog that is in heat:
 - a. must keep the dog securely confined indoors or within a building or enclosure that will prevent the escape of the dog or the entry of other dogs when the dog is on private property; and
 - b. must keep the dog on a leash when it is in a public place.
6. No owner may allow a dog or dogs to call, cry or bark, continuously or sporadically for 15 minutes or more, in such a way that the noise is audible outside of the parcel where the dog or dogs are kept as the Board believes such noise is objectionable and liable to disturb the peace, rest, enjoyment, comfort or convenience of individuals and the public.
7. The owner of a dog that is declared a nuisance dog must take such actions as may be deemed necessary to ensure the Bylaw is not further contravened.

PART III – POUND OPERATION

1. The Animal Control Officer, alone or with others, may seize, impound or detain any dog found to be running at large in the area serviced under this Bylaw.
2. If a dog is impounded under this Bylaw, the Animal Control Officer must, if the owner is known, notify the owner by mail or telephone that the dog has been impounded and advise of the fee required, contained herein, for the release of the dog. If the owner, so notified, does not appear at the pound within seven (7) days and release the dog so impounded by payment of the fees and expenses chargeable under this Bylaw, the Animal Control Officer may sell or destroy the dog.
3. If a dog is impounded under this Bylaw and the owner is not known by the Animal Control Officer and the owner does not appear at the pound to release the dog so impounded by payment of the fees and expenses chargeable under this Bylaw, after seven (7) days the Animal Control Officer may sell or destroy the dog.
4. The owner of an animal that has been impounded may recover the animal from the Pound by providing the Animal Control Officer with proof of ownership, and by paying the fees prescribed in Schedule 'A' of this Bylaw, in accordance with the number of days the animal was impounded and the number of times that the animal has been impounded.

PART IV – IMPOUNDMENT

1. The owner of a dangerous dog who wants to reclaim a dangerous dog that has been impounded must pay, in addition to the regular impoundment fees, the surcharge and other charges stated in Schedule 'A' for the handling and care of a dangerous dog, and must read, complete and sign the release attached as Schedule 'B' to this bylaw.
2. The Animal Control Officer may sell, dispose of, or humanely destroy a dog or other animal after the expiration of 168 hours (seven days) from the date of impoundment, or with the consent of the owner.
3. The owner of an animal shall pay the maintenance and other applicable fees set out in Schedule 'A' to this Bylaw, even if the owner does not reclaim the animal.
4. The Animal Control Officer may destroy any animal that is suffering from an incurable disease.
5. No person shall rescue, attempt to rescue or release any animal in the Pound or in the custody of the Animal Control Officer.
6. Where the Animal Control Officer has in any calendar year impounded any dog two times or more, or where the owner of any dog has been convicted of an offence under this Bylaw in respect of that dog two times or more in any calendar year, then the Animal Control Officer may order that the dog be removed from the control area within a reasonable period of time, and upon failure of the owner to comply with the order, the Animal Control Officer may take the dog into custody and destroy it.
7. When a dog is not on the owner's property, the Animal Control Officer may, where necessary employ the use of lures, baits, nets, tranquilizer gun, sonic and mechanical devices or any other means of apprehending dogs provided always that such methods are applied humanely.

PART V – RIGHT OF ENTRY

1. The Animal Control Officer is hereby authorized to enter, at all reasonable times, upon any property within Electoral Areas E and F in order to ascertain whether the provisions of this Bylaw are being obeyed.
2. No person shall hinder, delay or obstruct the Animal Control Officer or any person lawfully engaged in the execution of his or her duties under this Bylaw.

PART VI – SCHEDULES

1. Schedules ‘A’ and ‘B’ of this Bylaw form a part of this Bylaw and are enforceable in the same manner as this Bylaw.

PART VII – PENALTIES

1. A person who contravenes this bylaw or other requirement made or imposed under this bylaw, or amendments thereto, is guilty of an offence and is liable to a fine not exceeding $500.
2. Where an offence is committed or continues for more than one day, a person shall be deemed to have committed separate offences for each day on or during which an offence occurs or continues, and separate fines, each not exceeding $500, may be imposed for each day on or during which an offence occurs or continues.
3. Nothing in this bylaw shall restrict the District from utilizing any other remedy that would otherwise be available to the District at law.

PART VIII – EXCEPTION

1. Nothing in this Bylaw shall apply to a Guide Dog.
